Name of Proposed Event: SPE Student Seminar Series

Date(s) of Proposed Event: Every Thursday at 2:30 PM beginning October 02, 2008 through end-of-January 2009

Location of Event: IMS 159

Please briefly describe the event This is a series of seminars by students working in the field of Polymer Science within the University. These seminars will provide them with a non-competitive platform in which they will share their work with their peers, while simultaneously preparing them for presentations at international conferences. This event has traditionally been a done internally within the Polymer Program, and we would like to open the doors to the greater University body. We propose to provide a $10.00 co-op gift certificate to the speakers as a token of appreciation and honorarium. We will also provide refreshments at the event. Pending success of the project, we will expand participation to other departments.

Name of Proposed Event: Halloween Extravaganza 2008

Date(s) of Proposed Event: October 24, 2008

Location of Event: Up and Atom Cafe, Grant Science Complex / Bio

Please briefly describe the event This is one of our best events of the year! A halloween bash for graduate ghouls and goblins. We're doing the party joint with the Society of Plastics Engineers, and it should be awesome.
We're hoping to have food, entertainment, contests and small prizes. It will be amazing. We are expecting to entertain
